

EASTER.

To-day is Easter Sunday, the annual festival at the conclusion of Lent, in commemoration of the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. There is no trace of the celebration in the New Testament or in the writings of the apostolic fathers. The celebration of the day doubtless originated with the first Christians, who, being derived from, or intimately connected with the Jewish Church, naturally continued to observe the Jewish festivals, though in a new spirit, as commemorative of the events of which there had been the shadows. The Passover, ennobled by the thought of Christ, the true Paschal Lamb, the first-fruits of the dead, continued to be celebrated, and became the Christian Easter. Thus the human instinct which everyone craves for the commemoration of marked epochs, in the personal, social, ecclesiastical or national life, found its legitimate gratification in the public celebration of the events which are the foundation of the Christian faith.

A difference as to the time for the observance of the festival, naturally sprang up between Christians of Jewish and Gentile descent, which led to a long-continued and bitter controversy and an unhappy severance of Christian union. The diversity of usage was gradually brought to an end by the verdict of the Pope of Rome. The Roman Christians adopted the ordinary Gentile usage, which, within certain limits, placed the observance of the crucifixion on a Friday, and that of the resurrection on the following Sunday. The verdict was received with favor at that time, and has since been adopted by the entire Christian world.

Our evening contemporary, the Gazette, entered upon volume XLVII yesterday and the Weekly Gazette and Stockman on its XXIV. The Gazette is one of the most prominent and enterprising newspapers in the State and but for its political weakness would be one of the most useful. As it is, it is a pleasant and accommodating neighbor, and the JOURNAL most sincerely wishes it more financial success than any Nevada newspaper will, we are afraid, ever achieve under the mythical beneficence of McKinley prosperity.

A REAR-ADMIRAL in the United States navy was recently asked what he thought of expansion. "I don't think," he replied; "I obey orders." That is a good plan to pursue if one is a member of the army or navy, but it is a poor policy when applied to politics. Every voter should be his own thinker and the old custom of obeying orders from the party managers cannot be abandoned too quickly for the good of the public in general. This is especially the case in the corporation ruled State of Nevada.

The Salt Lake Tribune says that the tariff law should plainly state that whenever a trust is formed which includes articles protected by the tariff, the tariff should immediately become inoperative. That is an excellent idea, but if in operation with the present Dingley law, the United States would be almost a free trade nation, as the articles monopolized by the trusts are about the only ones that are "protected."

Mr. BRYAN still clings to the opinion that present indications of prosperity are a delusion. However, he is not preaching that doctrine among the thousands of workmen whose wages have recently been increased.—S. F. Post.

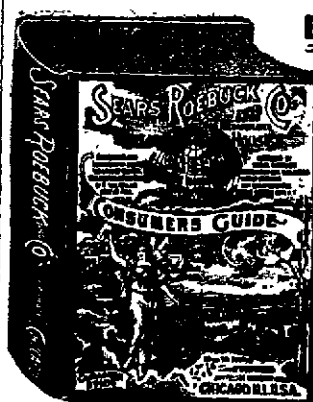

No. He is preaching to larger congregations—the hundreds of thousands of toilers with willing hands, who are unable to obtain employment at any wages.

NEVADA has much to attract the Easterner who has his eyes turned toward the west in search of a home. The problem before the State is to acquaint the people of the east with the extent of our resources. The only way that this can be done is to advertise. Send the Nevada papers east. No better method of advertising could be suggested.—Silver State.

We do not object to the Governor having power to sign or veto bills while the legislature is in session, but we consider the law that gives him power to veto bills after the legislature adjourns an insult to that body and an insult to the people.—Wells Herald.

Knights Templar.
The Knights Templar of De Witt Clinton Commandery No. 1, and also sojourning Knights, will attend the Episcopal Church in a body to day. A special train from Virginia and Carson will arrive about 9 A. M. and will leave at 5:30 P. M. The visiting Sir Knights will be the guests of their Reno brothers. After the services at the church a banquet will be given at Castle hall in the Investment building. The invitation to visiting Knights also includes their wives.

Easter Exercises.
Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the Methodist Church a fine Easter program will be rendered by the children of the Sabbath school. The program will consist of carols, recitations and beautiful class exercises. At its close the "missionary mite kegs" will be opened.

Miss Gibbs will move to the Smith building about the last of March, and will sell her millinery stock at greatly reduced prices to save handling. Now is the time to get bargains.

A car load of Studebaker Bros., celebrated buggies and carts has just been received by W. T. Hitt Co. Those desirous of purchasing anything in this line should first visit W. T. Hitt Co.'s store.

The Palace has received new spring capes, new suits, new waists, new skirts, new gloves, and, in fact, a whole store full of new goods. Look at the display in the windows.

Free Harbor Jubilee.

The JOURNAL has received a letter from the chairman of the Free Harbor Jubilee Committee to attend a celebration to take place at Los Angeles and San Pedro on the 25th inst. in honor of the new harbor at San Pedro to be made at the expense of the U. S. Government. The following is the program of exercises:

Tuesday, April 25th, at Los Angeles—Reception at 8 p. m. by the citizens of Los Angeles at the Chamber of Commerce. Music and refreshments.

Wednesday, April 26th, at San Pedro—Depositing the first barge load of rocks at 11 a. m. Barbecue at 1 p. m. Addresses by prominent speakers. Grand illumination of the harbor, shipping and bluffs in the evening.

We wonder if Nevada will ever have occasion to celebrate the inauguration of any improvement, from an appropriation from the National Government.

In the case of Qina vs. White the taking of the plaintiff's deposition occupied the afternoon, and will be continued next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Case of Crozier and G. Schaffer vs. Beche et al. was taken up for hearing before the District Court. Will be continued Friday, April 7th, at 10 a. m.

The suit brought by Al White against J. J. Quinn for defamation of character was brought before the court yesterday morning and the complaint argued by the various attorneys, Lawyers Haydon, Maestretti and Carlier appeared for the defendant while Wren, Julien and A. E. Cheney acted for the plaintiff.

The evidence was submitted and taken under advisement. The court adjourned to meet next Monday morning.

Amende Honorable.

On Friday evening in Carson, Mr. Wallace took one of the JOURNAL proprietors to task for publishing the statement that Gillespie was employed by the Southern Pacific Company, punching tickets at the Oakland mole. Mr. Wallace said: "Gillespie is not in the employ of the Southern Pacific and perhaps never will be." It is a matter of indifference to the JOURNAL whether the fellow is punching tickets at Oakland or hammering stone at San Quin-ton. The item appeared in half a dozen of the State papers before the JOURNAL mentioned it. However, we cheerfully give Mr. Wallace the benefit of his denial that the fugitive Assemblyman from Storey has not up to the present time been rewarded with a position by the Southern Pacific Company.

A Thriving Business.

Miss Claire Dickinson is doing a thriving business at her new location on Virginia street, and should be commended for the enterprise and business ability with which she handles a constantly increasing trade. Her large book and stationery store, presents a decidedly metropolitan appearance with its inviting display of all the latest novels and periodicals that can be obtained anywhere. As success and business ability go hand in hand we do not wonder why Miss Dickinson's store is so popular.

In Honor of Easter.

The numerous business houses about town have arranged novel and interesting displays in their show windows, showing that Easter is here. The spirit which prompts these special window designs indicates the push and enterprise characteristic of all prominent Renoites and should be commended.

Perhaps the most novel display is that of the Palace Dry Goods House. The background is a scenic painting made for this special purpose by Mr. Pavila, the artist, now visiting Reno; while in front a happy family consisting of a hen, little chickens and Easter bunnies caper about a domicile of their own.

The Cann Drug Company have displayed in their window a bank of the most exquisite California flowers, fresh from the city conservatories. These short-lived beauties sold so rapidly that the firm had difficulty in supplying the demand.

The staff of editors on the Record this year is an able one, as even a desultory glance at the neat little magazine will indicate. All the various departments are well written and some indicate that no mean order of literary ability abides with the youthful pencil shavers.

Rufus Kinney of Truckee Valley received a telegram yesterday afternoon from San Francisco informing him that his daughter Mae had undergone an operation for appendicitis, at Dr. Lane's hospital. It was stated that all conditions were favorable to the young lady's recovery.
